

Christmas greetings from our Friends in Peru

connect²: Peru

I hope you have a great day —that you are happy, together with family.

Adán

- Cruz de Mayo

We believe Christmas is a time to be together, a time for reunion with the family. We send our wishes to England and Wales for this coming Christmas.

We hope that you too remember the birth of Jesus, and, most importantly, the work that he did, so that we can continue to fight for those who are less fortunate this Christmas.

Jesy

- CEAS

On Christmas day, in my family my husband, and my children bring me food, chocolates and milk to make hot chocolate, so that I can go and distribute them to families who don't have much. Because that's what Christmas is about — sharing.

Thank you for listening to us, for taking an interest in our work. We really like sharing it with you, and telling you about what the children are achieving with the support of CAFOD.
