

Fourth Sunday of Lent (Year A)

Gospel: John 9:1-41

"I was blind, and now I see."

Charity no 1160384 and a company limited by guarantee no 09387398. Illustration: Erika Pal

See how many good things you can see in this picture. Can you see anything wrong or unfair? Talk to your friends or grown ups about what you would do if you saw something that was unfair in real life.

Write a prayer to God giving thanks for all the good things you can see, hear, smell, taste and touch by filling in the blanks with your own words.

God of all,

I thank you for _____ I see.

For the sound of _____

and the smell of _____

I thank you for the feel of _____

and _____ which I love to eat.

May my eyes always be open to see when others need my help,

And may my heart be filled with your love.

Amen.

Today is also Mothering Sunday, when we remember how special our mums are. See how many nice things you can do for your mum, or another grown up who is important to you, today.

Find out more about how Sister Consilia helps mums and babies in Zimbabwe: cafod.org.uk