

Let's make this a

SUMMER OF
hope

Transform lockdown and cancelled events this summer into a sign of hope by raising money to help CAFOD's Coronavirus response reach some of the world's poorest families.

How to run a Summer of Hope Summer Fair in seven easy steps

- 1 Decide what stalls you will make. For example:
- Guess the sweets in the jar
 - Treasure Hunt
 - Raffle
 - Guess the weight of the cake
 - Other _____

- 2 Set a date and time – weekend may be best, if some of your family work during the week. It's useful to have a set time so you can publicise it to friends and family who might donate.
- Make a JustGiving page for your summer fair, share it with friends and family and ask for donations or sponsorship for each 'stall'.
 - Fill a jar with sweets, take a picture and post on Facebook, ask people to donate to enter.
 - Star baker? Make your favourite cake, post a picture online and ask people to donate to guess how much it weighs.
 - Everyone loves the treasure hunt! Design your own map, but don't tell anyone where the treasure is! Donate to have a go.

- 3 Ask for help – rope in family members to do different jobs, like baking a cake, or donating raffle prizes. Everyone can help with promotion! Contact other families to ask them to hold their day at the same time and share photos.

- 4 Set up your JustGiving page – start from our Summer of Hope page and you'll get everything you need.

- 5 Promote your event! Share with friends and family what you are planning and why, especially your JustGiving page. And remember people who aren't online – tell your grandparents about it! You could live stream bits of your day – remember to get permission from everyone involved. Or post pictures on social media. Tag your photos @cafod #summerofhope. Share on facebook.com/CAFOD or @CAFODevents

- 6 Make your event safe – check out our handy guide.

- 7 Send in your money! If you have donations that have not been sent via your JustGiving page, you can pay in money direct to CAFOD's Coronavirus appeal at cafod.org.uk/summerofhope
