

Your voice is calling me

From all around, your voice is calling me.
I feel your glance in the many eyes that are looking at me.
I hear your words in the many voices that are yelling at me.
And in those who need me, I see your hand reaching out.

You are the one who questions me when I see that hungry child, or that mother bent over with her child on her back.

I know of many people do not hear your gospel, others who live miserable lives in smelly shacks and many more who steal to survive. And all of them scream at me in silence that they don't live in peace.

What can I do? Those children who play in the mud because there is no room for them at school. That man who doesn't want to live because he sees no point in life. So many others who suffer in prison or who are free, but have no freedom because they are denied a voice.

In all of these people and from every corner of the earth, your voice is calling me.

Prayer from the Salvadoran community of the Sisters of St Clare

Basic necessities of life

We pray for the Church throughout the world, that she may be a voice for those who lack even the basic necessities of life, tirelessly serving them and calling for change.
Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer

We pray for the world's leaders, that they may not hide behind their power or abuse it, but work for the good of all humanity, particularly the poor throughout the world.
Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer

We pray for our local community, that we may show our love through our respect for each other and for our environment, gladly sharing what we have with those in need.
Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer

Linda Jones/CAFOD

Unlimited generosity

You asked for my hands
that you might use them for your purposes
I gave them for a moment then withdrew them
for the work was hard.

You asked for my mouth
to speak out against injustice.
I gave you a whisper that I might not be accused.

You asked for my eyes
to see the pain of poverty.
I closed them for I did not want to see.

You asked for my life
that you might work through me .
I gave you a small part that I might not get "too involved".

Lord, forgive me for calculated efforts to serve you only when it is convenient for me to do so, and only in those places where it is safe to do so,
and only with those who make it easy to do so.

Father, forgive me
renew me
send me out
as a usable instrument,
that I may take seriously the meaning of your cross.

Joe Seramane, South Africa, from Lifelines, Christian Aid, 198

Malaysian prayers

Lord Jesus, open our eyes so that we can recognise the injustice around us that is not always obvious.
Allow us to be moved by compassion for the victims of injustice and to act in accordance with your will,
to defend the poorest and to save the children in need.
Amen.

Lord God, you feel so strongly about the needy,
the afflicted, the weak, and the imprisoned – and you love them so deeply.
Inspire the leaders among us to uphold the rights of the downtrodden and to serve with fairness, justice and integrity. Amen.

Anil Netto, Malaysia

Prayer to make poverty history

Christ our Lord,
your light shines into the shadows,
and shows us
where the obstacles to change lie.
We know that often they are in our own hearts,
in the way we live, and in our daily choices and actions.

We pray that we may accept
the light of your love
as a challenge to change
ourselves and our world.

We pray that, each day,
we make the choices
and take the actions
that will bring an end to poverty and hunger,
and lead us all
towards a fairer world.

Be with us, Lord,
as we face your challenge
and learn how to live
our lives in love. Amen.

Linda Jones/CAFOD

Poverty, Peace and Justice

A prayer from an ecumenical conference in Brazil, calling for an end to poverty as the first step on the path to peace through justice.

O Lord, God of life,
who cares for all creation, give us your peace.
May our security not come from arms, but from respect,
May our force not be of violence, but of love.
May our wealth not be in money, but in sharing.
May our path not be of ambition, but of justice.
May our victory not be from vengeance, but in forgiveness.
Open and confident, we want to defend the dignity of all creation, sharing, today and forever, the bread of solidarity and peace.
In the name of Jesus, your holy son, our brother, who, as victim of our violence, even from the heights of the cross gave us all forgiveness. Amen.