

God, our Redeemer

For hands that shielded pain, but now clap for joy.

We thank you Lord.

For eyes that once saw violence, but now radiate hope.

We thank you Lord.

For voices that screamed with terror, but now sing games.

We thank you Lord.

For strangers who once seemed distant, but now stand beside us.

We thank you Lord.

Sue Cooper